Cricket Carnival:

On Friday the Year 2 – 7 students travelled to Lake Grace to compete in the Milo T20 Blast competition. We took three teams and although we only won one game, we were competitive with four of our matches being decided by less than 5 runs! It was a terrific day with music playing and everyone enjoyed themselves ... even the students who don’t like cricket!!!

Congratulations to Bryden Guelfi, Meikhi Humphries and Fletcher Cugley who were awarded the Fairest and Most Enthusiastic player for their teams.

Other award winners for Newdeagate were Koby Hams who won the Intermediate Catching Competition and Isla Hoglin, Esther Barrett-Lennard and Hayley Guelfi who won an award for being the best dancers out of all the schools on the day.

The shire would like to know if there are any bus stop signs needed in our area.

If you do not have a bus stop sign where there should be one please let the office know so we can get back to them.

Wanted

Any old half used pencils for art projects.

Thank You

Book fair

There is a book fair running in the Library. Please see Mrs Guelfi.

All books are to be paid for before taking with you.
